STUDENT RIGHT TO KNOW ACT: In accordance with the Federal Student Right to Know Act, Taylor University is pleased to make available an annual report containing statistics on crimes and arrests, our policies related to reporting crimes and the security of facilities. Information about campus law enforcement, crimes at off-campus locations, alcoholic beverages, illegal drugs and sexual offenses is also included. This report gives testimony to the low number of incidents on our campus and reflects Taylor's commitment to maintaining a safe environment. Our report also includes descriptions of educational programs designed to increase awareness of personal safety, crime prevention and drug/alcohol abuse prevention. You may obtain a copy of this report by contacting the Dean of Students, Taylor University, 236 West Reade Avenue, Upland, Indiana 46989.

The Student Right to Know Act of 1990 (Public Law 101-542 as amended) requires colleges and universities to maintain records of students' enrollment, graduation and participation in athletically-related financial aid. This data is available on our website at taylor.edu/srkt.

TAYLOR POLICY OF NONDISCRIMINATION: Taylor University complies with all federal and state nondiscrimination laws. Taylor University is an equal opportunity institution. Direct inquiries to the Office of Academic Affairs, Taylor University, Upland, IN 46989, 765-998-5204, or the Office of Civil Rights, DHEW, Washington, DC.

Providing information on race/ethnicity is voluntary. The information will not be used in a discriminatory manner.

YOUR SPIRITUAL LIFE

Have you personally accepted Jesus Christ as Your Savior? Yes No

Taylor University is a discipleship focused institution — desiring to encourage students to continue pursuing their personal relationship with Jesus Christ. We understand that being a Christ-follower is a journey and each of us is at a unique point in our walk with the Lord. Please help us know where you are on this journey. Check up to five that best describe you.

- People know I am a Christian.
- My faith is based on my parents' faith but I am working to make it my own.
- I know I am a Christian, but there seems to be little spiritual fruit in my life.
- I am comfortable sharing my faith with others.
- I do not consider myself a Christ-follower.
- I have a personal relationship with Christ.
- My only source of growth is Sunday morning church.
- Right now I am just having fun, but plan on working to get my life together.
- I am committed to serving Christ by serving others.
- Other descriptor: _____

Identify the top three influences on your spiritual growth:

- Personal devotions.
- Reading - other than the Bible.
- Mentor or accountability group.
- I really don't know how to grow.
- I'm really not motivated to work on this area of my life right now, but I wish I was.
- Other influence: _____
- I'm comfortable where I am.
- My family.
- Friends or youth group.
- Ministry involvement.

YOUR STORY

We want to know you—how you have developed academically and spiritually, what's important to you, and how you imagine contributing to the Taylor community. We are especially interested in knowing how God is working in and through you. Other applicants may have similar credentials, but none have your particular experiences. Your story is unique.

WRITE YOUR STORY

If you prefer the pen (or computer), write your story. Tell us how you've seen God working in your life, whether through a specific circumstance or in the grand scheme, and tell us why Taylor's discipleship community appeals to you. Your story should be between 400 and 700 words.

OR

TELL YOUR STORY

If you would rather talk through your story, you can share your story in an Admissions interview either in person or over the phone. If you prefer this, check the appropriate box.

I prefer to tell my story: I've already interviewed on campus Please call me to schedule my interview

AFFIRMATION (REQUIRED FOR APPLICATION TO BE COMPLETE)

Before you finish, read through Taylor's Life Together Covenant online at taylor.edu/LTC.

Check the box and sign below to complete the application.

- It is my desire to maintain the expectations of Taylor University. I have read the Life Together Covenant and accept these responsibilities as a participant in the Taylor community. To the best of my knowledge, the information provided in this application is complete and accurate.
