Higher Education and Student Development

Chair, Skip Trudeau

The Master of Arts in Higher Education and Student Development (MAHE) program is built upon a longstanding institutional commitment to whole-person, Christ-centered higher education. This foundation supports a distinctive community culture in which all members—students, faculty, staff, and administration—are encouraged to partner together to facilitate a robust and dynamic educational enterprise combining academic excellence, personal support, and Christian vision. The program employs an engaged instructional methodology to teach, model, and promote whole-person education; prepare students to serve in a variety of higher educational roles and contexts; and cultivate change agents who will provide exemplary higher educational service and leadership from a Christian perspective.

This program is designed to help students connect to the best of higher educational research, thought, and practice in order to form a distinctive, personal educational philosophy that will equip them to serve and inspire college students in a manner that helps to nurture growth and fullness in all areas of their lives. In accordance with our philosophy of higher education and acknowledged professional standards, the program will focus on the following learning outcomes:

1. College student learning and development: Program graduates will be able to describe the major elements and issues of college student development and will demonstrate the capacity to apply developmental understandings in professional practice.
 - Counseling and referral: Graduates will demonstrate an understanding of and proficiency with basic helping skills as well as the skills and knowledge required to provide referrals to students needing professional mental health care.
 - Student learning: Graduates will possess knowledge of the student learning paradigm and demonstrate proficiency at promoting, developing and implementing a “seamless curriculum.”
 - Spiritual development: Graduates will display personal spiritual maturity and the clear ability to effectively and appropriately integrate faith and practice. Additionally, graduates will possess the knowledge and skills necessary to promote student spiritual formation. This outcome forms the foundation of the whole person philosophy of this Christ-centered program and its graduates.
2. Leadership for change: Graduates will demonstrate an understanding of the theoretical and practical principles for leading change. Additionally, graduates will develop a personal model of leadership and gain experience by assisting in undergraduate leadership development initiatives.
 - Administration and governance: Graduates will be aware of the unique administrative, organizational and governance issues and structures present in higher education. In addition, they will demonstrate the ability navigate and work effectively within these structures.
 - Higher education finance: Graduates will exhibit an understanding of higher education finance and funding structures as well as the ability to construct, and manage institutional and departmental budgets.
 - Program Development: Graduates will exhibit theoretical understanding and organizational skills necessary for the development and implementation of effective educational curricula and programs.
 - Legal issues in higher education: Graduates will gain exposure to legal concepts and issues in higher education and demonstrate practical knowledge of working with legal counsel.
 - Global engagement: Graduates will understand higher education within a global context and be prepared to skillfully operate within multiple cultural environments.
 - Contemporary issues and trends in higher education: Graduates will demonstrate knowledge and understanding of significant issues and trends in higher education. Additionally, they will possess a practical understanding of methods of identifying and evaluating contemporary developments.
3. Educational values, philosophy, and history: Graduates will possess knowledge of the philosophical, psychological, and sociological underpinnings of American higher education. Additionally, they will be able to discern important implications of these foundations in the practice of program and curriculum design and implementation.
 - History of higher education: Graduates will demonstrate knowledge and understanding of the key historical events, movements, and trends that have shaped American higher education.
4. Research, scholarship, and assessment: Graduates will demonstrate research proficiency necessary for the purposes of program assessment and improvement, development of optimal educational practice, and the advancement of knowledge in the field. Students will participate in original research and have opportunities to present and or publish findings professionally.
 - Assessment: Graduates will have an understanding of the principles of program assessment, skills needed to construct such assessments, and the knowledge of how to incorporate assessment findings into continuous quality improvement.
5. Experiential learning: Graduates will gain hands-on professional experience through participation in a variety of practicum and internship opportunities.

Higher Education and Student Development (MA)

The Master of Arts degree in Higher Education and Student Development requires 40 hours and the successful completion of a thesis is required for graduation. Students may request an extension for completion by August 15. The extension must be approved by the thesis supervisor and the program chair. If a student fails to complete the thesis prior to August 15, the student must maintain continuous enrollment and will be charged a continuation fee, currently $500, each term until the thesis is complete.

HED 691 Inquiry in Higher Education 2 hours
This course surveys common statistical concepts and design strategies used in higher educational research.

HED 695 Capstone in Higher Education and Student Development 3 hours
The capstone course and the completed thesis serve as the two culminating experiences of students seeking the M.A. degree in Higher Education and Student Development. This seminar style course will help students to refine their philosophical, practical, and vocational understandings of higher education in order to prepare them to launch their professional journey. The ultimate purpose of the course is to help students to nurture a concrete understanding of the vital connection between theory and practice for both their own service and for the broader realm of higher education.

HED 790/791 Advanced Research and Data Analysis 2 hours
Continuation of Inquiry in Higher Education and culminates in the crafting of a publishable thesis.

HED 795 Program Continuation 0 hours
To be used by students who have completed all degree requirements except thesis or internship. Available only to students who are working under the supervision of a faculty advisor and with the approval of the program chair/director.

Ministry

Graduate Chair, Michael Severe

The mission of the Master of Arts in Ministry is to prepare leaders for the challenges of designing effective 21st century ministry. In support of Taylor's overall mission and in partnership with a number of churches and denominations, the program prepares spiritually maturing ministry leaders who facilitate the processes of spiritual formation in others for compassionate and effective service to the Church and the world. The program provides a foundation for students who are pursuing careers in church ministry, para-church ministry, or graduate school. The program is characterized by a whole-person focus. Courses balance theory and practice as the biblical, theological, historical, philosophical, and educational foundations of ministry are explored. Spiritual formation in the context of a learning community is emphasized. Students learn collaborative thinking, planning, programming, and evaluation strategies while they are using and identifying their spiritual gifts in ministry and for impact in the world.

Ministry (MA)

The Master of Arts degree in Ministry requires 36 hours. Most courses are face-to-face, 8-week modular courses in seminar form, held at our ministry partner locations in Indianapolis and Fort Wayne, Indiana. Students typically carry out their 6 hours of ministry residency courses while participating in 6 semesters of ministry work at an approved ministry site.

MAM 520* 1 Ministry Residency

*MAM 520 must be taken 6 times.

Ministry Courses

MAM 500 Ministry Seminar

3 hours

This introductory cohort course includes examination of the biblical foundations for balanced ministry, the calling of the minister, as well as an introduction to the disciple-making ministries of the church. Selected topics, current issues, and procedures necessary for the effective functioning of the church's disciple-making ministries will be explored. Culture and the practice of ministry are specific areas of interest. Students interact with each other in the areas of ideas and practical experiences in ministry. The course endeavors to examine and integrate church ministries in a cumulative, group learning experience.

MAM 520 Ministry Residency

1 hour

This course is designed for the student to put into practice the theology, principles and theories studied in the classroom. Each student will assume approved ministry assignments through a residency in a local church or parachurch organization, minister in that position for a minimal number of hours, fulfill a number of core and specialization experiences, complete reading and reflection assignments, and evaluate the internship experience. Weekly supervisor meetings and exposure to varieties of leaders in ministry is included.

MAM 540 Teaching for Transformation

3 hours

Guided by the Great Commission instruction to "make disciples by teaching" the class explores models of interactive teaching that helps ministry leaders connect God's Word to the lives of learners. This course introduces and integrates elements of educational theory, human development and practice in order to cultivate effective biblical teaching in various ministry (nonformal educational) contexts that are concerned with Christian discipleship.

MAM 560 Spiritual Formation for Ministry

3 hours

Students' capacity for ministry is enhanced in this course by facilitating personal spiritual growth and development. Emphasis is given to doctrines of sanctification, anthropology, and hamartiology and to the ways theological truths address life issues such as marriage, sexuality, use of spiritual gifts, temptation, etc. Spiritual disciplines, especially the practice of engaging scripture, are explored interactively, giving students models to apply in their ministry contexts.

MAM 580 Old Testament Interpretation and Theology

3 hours

A study of the interpretation and overall theology of the Old Testament with special attention to the Bible's storyline and the history of redemption. Students will be taught to interpret the Old Testament with sensitivity to language and discourse, literary genre, historical context, and biblical theology.

MAM 590 New Testament Interpretation and Theology

3 hours

A study of the interpretation and overall theology of the New Testament with special attention to the Bible's storyline and the history of redemption. Students will be taught to interpret the New Testament with sensitivity to language and discourse, literary genre, historical context, and biblical theology.

MAM 600 Christian Theology: Historical and Contemporary Issues

3 hours

An examination and analysis of historical and contemporary theological subjects that have a direct bearing on current church doctrine and practice. Historical topics include the Trinity, salvation, the humanity and deity of Christ, theological anthropology and the corporate life and practices of the church. Contemporary topics include the nature and authority of the Bible, the Holy Spirit, identity and sexuality, Christianity and pluralism, and eschatology.

MAM 620 Leading in Ministry

3 hours

Effective leadership emerges from a leader's character and is a dynamic process. Leaders will develop specific competencies and points of view related to character formation for ministry. This course is designed to facilitate the development of the student's skills in leadership, organization, ethics, and management related to specific ministry situations. Special emphasis is placed on analyzing "core" issues in the leader's life and ministry/vocation in ways that will assist students in understanding their experience thus far and in anticipating future developmental experiences.

MAM 640 Equipping the Saints

3 hours

Survey the elements of leadership and theology for the efficient and effective mobilization of church and parachurch ministry. This study will guide students in understanding the roles of vocational staff members and volunteer staff. Students should develop the ability to apply biblical principles to leadership of the church and leading through change and conflict management. This course will provide the theoretical and practical framework for understanding the significance of organizational culture and its impact on Christian education and disciple-making ministries. The material will lead to a comprehensive analysis of change and conflict in Christian organizations. Recruiting, equipping, and developing teams for ministry will be central.

MAM 660 Discipleship, Evangelism, and the Mission of the Church

3 hours

This course is a study of the biblical principles and strategy needed to develop a disciple-making ministry that fulfills the mission of God in the church. An emphasis will be placed upon practical application within a ministry setting by the leadership. Included will be principles which give emphasis to establishing long-range evangelism and discipleship plans and molding various elements of ministry into a comprehensive strategy within a specific cultural context. The gospel, the church and the priesthood of all believers will be central areas of study. The outlook, concepts, and skills introduced in this course will equip the student to formulate a holistic philosophy of ministry.

MAM 680 Ministry Capstone

3 hours

The Capstone is designed to provide a synthetic educational experience that helps students to see how the composite parts of their academic and ministry experience relate to one another and connect to life beyond graduation. The course includes: (1) instruction to help the student to reflect and prepare to engage their calling and ministry post-graduation, (2) a two-week trip for on-site investigation of a variety of ministries, interspersed with classroom instruction by ministry leaders and (3) a final reflective component integrating the experience with the previous 1-2 years of the practicum with the students' reflections on their calling and ministry.

Transition to Teaching/Graduate Online Licensure Programs

Director, April Dickey

The Transition to Teaching (TTT) program is a non-degree program designed for individuals who have earned a baccalaureate degree from a regionally accredited institution of higher education and wish to pursue a teaching license. The program includes coursework completed online along with associated field experiences.

Candidates desiring a secondary license will complete an 18-credit hour course of study. The Transition to Teaching Elementary, All Grade (P-12), Mild Intervention, and TESOL (P-12) Licensure Programs each are a 24-credit hour course of study. Each candidate must meet all state licensure requirements of the Indiana Department of Education which include state licensure exams, CPR training, and suicide prevention training. A ten-week student teaching experience is a mandatory component for each of these programs. Upon successful completion of all program and Indiana Department of Education requirements, a candidate may apply for an Indiana teaching license.

In addition to the coursework required for each program, a candidate admitted to the program must submit a current criminal background check; pass state-required competency licensure exams; and complete an electronic portfolio during student teaching.

Additional licensure programs are available to those who are already licensed and wish to add to their existing teaching license.

The SpEd Mild-Moderate P-12 Program allows a candidate who already possesses a current Indiana license to add Exceptional Needs: Mild Intervention (P-12) to his or her license. This program is a series of six courses, some of which include a field experience component. Student teaching is not required. Upon completion of coursework and passage of state-required competency exam(s), a candidate will be eligible to add this licensure to his or her existing license.

The SpEd Intense P-12 Licensure Program allows a candidate who already possesses a current Indiana license in Exceptional Needs: Mild Intervention to add Exceptional Needs: Intense Intervention (P-12) to his or her license. This program is a series of three courses that include field experience components. Student teaching is not required. Upon completion of coursework and passage of state-required competency licensure exam(s), a candidate will be eligible to add this licensure to his or her license.

The Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL) P-12 Licensure Program allows a candidate who already possesses a current Indiana teaching license to add the ENL/ESL P-12 Licensure to his or her license. This licensure prepares teachers to work with English learners of all ages, in ESL classrooms or in mainstream classrooms. This program is a series of five courses, some of which include a field experience component. Upon completion of coursework and the passage of state-required competency licensure exam(s), a candidate will be eligible to add this licensure to his or her existing license.

For additional information and an application, please visit online at <https://www.taylor.edu/online/programs-licensure/> or contact the director of the program at (765) 998-5145.

Special Education Courses

SED 520 Exceptional Children 3 hours
This course is designed to prepare the teacher for the challenge of meeting the needs of diverse student populations in the regular classroom. Various topics included are diverse student populations, mainstreaming and inclusion, federal and state special education laws, identification of exceptional children, their characteristics and special needs, delivery of services, instructional methods and techniques, and evaluation.

SED 525 Educating Exceptional Learners 3 hours
This course studies the historical, philosophical, and sociological foundations of education and prepares teachers to apply knowledge and skills to meet the diverse needs of students with exceptionalities. Candidates will be empowered to discern the various abilities of students with mild to moderate characteristics. Topics include concepts of teaching, lesson planning, and inclusion through the lens of InTASC, state, and professional organizational principles. This course includes a field experience.

SED 530 Foundations of Special Education 3 hours
This course is an overview of the history and development of laws which mandate the provision of Special Education and related services to students with disabilities. The purpose of this course is to empower the prospective teacher of Special Education through the development of the knowledge of the legal foundation of Special Education. Students will gain an understanding of the legal issues surrounding the rights and provision of Special Education services to students with disabilities in public schools. This course will provide students with information about legal issues in special education with an emphasis on implementing legally sound policies and procedures in their own practice.

SED 535 Critical Issues in Special Education 3 hours
This course is an overview of the contemporary issues surrounding the inclusion of students with mild to moderate disabilities in public schools. The purpose of this course is to empower the prospective teacher of special education through their preparation to respond to issues they will encounter in the profession. Students will explore a wide variety of issues and trends currently impacting the field of special education. Students will gain an understanding of the important issues surrounding the inclusion of students with mild to moderate disabilities in public schools. Prerequisites: SED 520 and SED 530.

SED 540 Assessment in Special Education 3 hours
This course focuses on formal and informal assessment used to identify, plan for, and teach students with exceptional needs, including the use of that information to develop individual education plans. Communication of that information with students, parents, and other personnel is discussed. This course has a field experience. Prerequisites: SED 520 and SED 530.

SED 550 Behavior Management 3 hours
Managing the learning environment of students with special needs is the focus of this course. Topics covered include behavioral assessments and their use in developing intervention plans for exceptional students, as well as the legal implications of laws and regulations regarding the implementation of these plans in various learning environments. Characteristics and observations of behavior disorders are also explored. An observation of a classroom with disruptive behaviors is required as well as service learning projects. Prerequisites: SED 520 and SED 530.

SED 555 Methods of Special Education 3 hours
Methods and materials used in the intervention of exceptional learners are presented in this course. Strategies of instruction in the least restrictive environment, modification of curriculum, and collaboration and consultation across the spectrum of services are presented in conjunction with the daily teaching and planning required of students' individual education plans. Includes a field experience lab. Prerequisites: SED 520 and SED 530.

SED 575 Low-Incidence Disabilities-Instruction and Learning 3 hours
This course is designed for candidates to operationalize knowledge of the curriculum principles to design systematic instruction for individuals with intense disabilities. The focus is on research-based strategies for promoting academic and social-emotional success. Historical and legal aspects will inform instruction to meet students' current learning needs as well as preparation for adulthood. Candidates will relate characteristics and etiological backgrounds of preschool children through adolescence with intense disabilities to assess and design individualized and effective instruction. The roles and types of technologies in the teaching and learning process will be included. This course includes a field experience teaching students with intense disabilities.

SED 580 Low-Incidence Disabilities-Independence and Self-Determination 3 hours
This course provides candidates with the skills to evaluate and design effective individualized programs based upon instructional needs related to independence and self-determination for students with intense disabilities. An informed decision-making process based upon student, family, and diagnostic procedures are the focus. Theories and principles related to the skills for independence and self-determination are applied to design individualized programs to address daily living, job and community, and self-management of behaviors for students. This course includes a field experience teaching students with intense disabilities.

SED 590 Low-Incidence Disabilities-Collaboration and Individualized Programs 3 hours
The course focuses on the application of effective strategies of communication and collaboration for promoting the success of children and adolescents with intense disabilities. The consultative and collaborative skills and roles of special education teachers will be applied to advance the learning experiences and outcomes for students. Content includes current issues and trends related to various programs, and services. Culturally competent services, parent involvement, and the role of students with intense disabilities are addressed. This course includes a field experience teaching students with intense disabilities.

Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL) Courses

TSL 501 Introduction to Second Language Acquisition and the Field of TESOL 3 hours

This course discusses the role of the English language in the contemporary world and how language and culture shape human interactions. It provides an introductory understanding of the field of second language acquisition from the perspective of both learning and teaching a new language. It also explores the teaching of English in ministry in U.S. and international contexts. Includes 5 hours of TESOL/cross-cultural experience.

TSL 503 Methods and Assessment in TESOL 3 hours

This course develops understanding and skill in classroom instruction of English learners including lesson planning, teaching, and assessment. Topics include teaching methods and techniques for all aspects of English language development, educational technology, curricular planning, and formative assessment. Includes a 20-hour field experience lab. Prerequisite: TSL 501.

TSL 505 Pedagogical Grammar and Applied Linguistics in TESOL 3 hours

This course introduces applied linguistics and its practical implications in language teaching. Provides study of English grammar and how English structures are taught and explained to English learners. Prerequisite: TSL 501.

TSL 510 Teaching ELL in P-12 Classroom 3 hours

This course addresses English language learners (ELLs) in P-12 classrooms. Investigates TESOL-related legislation and its effect on schools, students, and teachers, as well as types of ESOL programs used in U.S. schools and their effectiveness. Studies effective advocacy, strategies for collaboration with families and non-ESOL colleagues and paraprofessionals, and helpful resources and services. Prerequisite: TSL 501.

TSL 582 Seminar with Field Experience in TESOL 3 hours

This course is comprised of a supervised ESOL field experience totaling a minimum of 40 hours, plus accompanying seminar sessions focused on reflection, development of teaching skill, and TESOL professionalization. Prerequisites: TSL 501, TSL 503, and TSL 505. This course has a minimum 40-hour field experience.

Transition to Teaching Courses

TTT 510 Introduction to the Education Profession 3 hours

A study of the historical, philosophical, and sociological foundations of education. The organization, role, and funding of the public school (K-12) in a multicultural society are examined. Topics include court cases related to education, INTASC principles, concepts of teaching, lesson planning, educational technology, and educational ethics. The course also includes an introduction to candidate portfolio. Includes a field experience lab.
