

Humanities

Humanities courses carry an interdisciplinary focus and are directly related to more than one single academic area. These courses include curricular offerings in arts, music, and theatre arts.

Humanities Courses

HUM 120 4 hours

Survey of 20th Century Music and Art

A lecture and on-location course focusing on 20th century musical and visual art. This course exists to develop students' perceptual skills, and encourage artistic literacy particularly as these concepts were conveyed during the past century. A major focus of this course is experiencing art and music. Written critiques on selected events are a vital part of the course curriculum. The 300-level version of this course includes an additional research project. Meets a foundational core aesthetic literacy requirement.

Arts and Ideas

This interdisciplinary course investigates the nature of human culture and creativity as prime aspects of what it means to be human through a consideration of the arts. Focusing on the visual arts, music, theater, and film, this course emphasizes the consideration of works within their original historical and cultural contexts and the ideas that inform them. Through discussion, collaborative and active learning assignments, and hands-on projects, students engage a wide range of frameworks for understanding human creativity and the arts from a multitude of disciplines as varied as psychology, marketing, neuroscience, and Christian theology. Meets a foundational core aesthetic literacy requirement.
