Co-Chairs, Associate Professor C. Angell, Assistant Professor R. Spencer
 Professors C. Bade, L. Harshenin, T. Syswerda
 Associate Professor E. Kwan
 Assistant Professors T. Manning, L. Songer

The Department of Music, Theatre, and Dance exists with a three-fold purpose: to equip students with discipline-specific skills and experiences needed for their future academic and professional work; to educate students and the community in the value and integrity of music, theatre, and dance as expressive art forms; and to present performances and productions that creatively engage the minds and hearts of the community.

The department offers the Bachelor of Arts degree, Bachelor of Fine Arts degree, Bachelor of Science degree, and Bachelor of Music degree programs. A Department of Music, Theatre, and Dance handbook, outlining all areas of degree concentration and operational policies, is available on the Taylor University web site and from the department offices. Students in the BS in Music with concentration in Marketing or Management may apply for an off-campus semester in Nashville, Tennessee, for the purpose of more focused study in contemporary music. Please consult the appendix of the Department of Music, Theatre, and Dance handbook; for more details, refer to Contemporary Music Center in the Off-Campus/International Programs section of this catalog.

The department offers minors in Applied Music, Dance, Keyboard Pedagogy, Music Composition, Theatre Arts, and Worship Arts.

Taylor University is an institutional member of the National Association of Schools of Music (NASM).

A senior performance recital or project is required for all music degree programs. Performance guidelines for juries, proficiencies, and recitals/projects may be found in the department handbook.

Music (BA)

The Bachelor of Arts degree with a major in Music requires completion of 54-56 hours and two years of sequential study in one foreign language. Majors must satisfy the recital attendance policies stated in the department handbook. This degree is designed for students who are primarily interested in a liberal arts degree program with a focus in music. This broadly based degree program has as its foundation the study of music, history, theory, and literature. The program prepares students for diverse career opportunities or graduate study. All major courses must be completed with a grade of C- or better and are included in the major GPA.

Performance (BM)

The Bachelor of Music degree with a major in Performance is offered to students in three concentration areas. The major with an Instrumental concentration requires 81-82 credit hours; the major with a Piano concentration requires 79-80 credit hours; and the major with a Vocal concentration requires 72-73 credit hours. Majors must satisfy the recital attendance policies stated in the department handbook. The Bachelor of Music degree is the initial degree in the study of music performance and prepares students for graduate school and possible careers as solo performers in concert or church music, accompanists, private teachers, professional ensemble members, conductors, or college teachers. Its primary emphasis is on development of the skills, concepts, and sensitivity essential to the professional life of a musician. All major courses, including those in the concentration, must be completed with a grade of C- or better and are included in the major GPA.
