Jane has been a part of a weekly co-op throughout high school, Ideal Co-op, which has given her the opportunity to discuss and present her work with her peers. The peer accountability and her co-op teachers have encouraged her to study diligently and have helped her see how her faith connects to all of her studies. Science labs have been completed during co-op days. Jane used the Saxon Math curriculum for her math classes and Apologia for her Science classes. All Literature and Composition classes were under the umbrella of Ideal Co-op, with a book list of around 10-15 per class.
